THE

GREAT WHITE BIND WEED.

NAMES.

A. لبلاب

G. Σμιλαξ.

L. Convolvulus major albus.

I. Volucchio maggiore.

G. Glatt Winden.

F. Volubilis

S. Correhuela-Mayor.

D. Gwte Winde.

PLACE.

It Grows in Hedges almost every where.

DESCRIPTION

This common plant has a thin creeping root with ing it, a milky Juice flows out. The Stalks are twisted and Climing up anything it grows near to a Considerabl Leaves are a little Rumpled not fleshy, of a full green Backs are whiter; the Veins moderately deep. The Cup 5. whitish Green, divided into five parts, having an outward C with a Liver Colour at the Edge. The Flower is of a pure broad as the End of a Trumpet, and at the Back a extending to the Extremety of the Flower: it has five C mits and Farina round a Style 4. on the Top of a Vessel 5. in which is four Seeds, which when Ripe Vessel Cut, 7. one Seed, Part of the flower, 8 with the VIRTUES.

The Root is Cathartic, and but little used.

T. Sheldrake delin.